Member Submitted Question

- With 1 second on the game clock in the 4th quarter, the game is 20-19 in favor of team B. Team A lines up in a legal scrimmage kick formation, to attempt a game winning field goal. The holder flips the ball to the kicker, who runs the ball into the end zone for a game winning touchdown. The holder's knee was on the ground when he flipped the ball to the kicker. How should the officials rule on this play, according to NFHS rules?
 - A. The play stands, touchdown for A
 - B. The play is whistled dead when the pitch is made

Answer: B

Member Submitted Questions

- A is lined up in a scrimmage kick formation, to attempt a punt. The long snap hits the ground, and is picked up by the kicker. The kicker side steps a player from team B, takes a step and kicks the ball cleanly. Two defenders then make hard contact with the kicker, taking him off of his feet. How do we rule?
 - A. Clean play, no foul
 - B. Roughing the kicker - 15 yards and automatic first down
 - C. Running into the kicker - 5 yards and replay the down

Answer: B

Pre-Meeting Questions

- The ball is about to become live. A coach is in the restricted area. The line judge blows his whistle to stop all action. What is the appropriate action by the officials in this instance?
 - A. Sideline warning, no distance penalty
 - B. Sideline warning, 5 yard distance penalty
 - C. Sideline interference, 15 yard distance penalty

Answer: Any could be correct, we need more information

Pre-Meeting Questions

- A coach who has been disqualified may not have further direct or indirect contact with his team during the remainder of the game.
- A. True
- B. False

Answer: True

Question for Thought

- A player's actions have disqualified him from the game. After the player leaves the field of play, he rushes the referee, and blindsides the referee. What is our recourse as the player has already been disqualified?
